

Taking note of previous WFM resolutions (in particular resolution 5 from the 25th Congress in Geneva in 2007), and in the light of increased visibility of the treatment of [political] bloggers from around the world, the Council calls on the WFM

- to acknowledge and support the right of bloggers to freedom of expression, free from threat of intimidation or persecution under the UN Declaration of Human Rights, Article 19.