KEY MESSAGE FROM OUR LEADERSHIP

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE CHAIR

2022 was a year of renewal for WFM. After the retirement of long-standing WFM Executive Director Bill Pace in 2018, the core projects of the 'Coalition for the International Criminal Court' and the 'International Coalition for Responsibility to Protect' completed their transition to new host organizations. At the end of 2021, the WFM Congress elected a fresh Executive Committee to establish the direction for WFM going forwards. An early step was the appointment of a new consultant Executive Director, Amy Oloo, a young international lawyer with experience in project management and human rights advocacy, based in Nairobi, Kenya.

The new leadership team conducted a wide-ranging Theory of Change process in consultation with all Member and Associate Organizations. The results were completely aligned with the founding document of WFM, the Montreux Declaration of 1947. The renewed vision, mission and values may be found in the 'About us' section of the website, as well as the 'highlights' section of this report. In essence we re-affirmed that our long-term goal is democratic world federation, that we pursue multiple paths and incremental improvements of global governance towards this goal; and that this diversity of approaches is a strength, providing flexibility and resilience in an unpredictable world. In 2023, WFM will update its Strategic Plan to reflect this Theory of Change.

That a 2022 Theory of Change aligns with a 1947 Declaration indicates the enduring rationale for our proposals. The deepening global 'polycrisis' is generating increasing popular and political demand for change. We have the plan and we have the catalyst. It is an exciting time to be a world federalist.

KEY MESSAGE FROM OUR LEADERSHIP

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

In February 2022, the world watched helplessly as Russia launched a full scale invasion of Ukraine, contravening core international law principles, and evading accountability by way of its privileged status as a permanent member of the UN Security Council.

Meanwhile, at the November UN Climate Change Conference, we grew more weary as we witnessed, once again, fragmentation on the best way forward, as far as tackling climate change.

All this occurred on the heels of a global pandemic, which highlighted the blatant inequality in the global political order, as wealthier Western nations hoarded COVID-19 vaccines, to the detriment of their counterparts in the global south, who are still struggling with the post pandemic economic recovery.

If nothing else, these ordeals have underscored the need for effective global governance mechanisms for addressing acute transnational challenges. Having spent 2022 reflecting on its vision, mission, values and goals, as well as developing diverse projects to allow it to address key global governance issues, WFM-IGP remains uniquely positioned to offer much needed solutions to these worsening global crises. We look forward to implementing our global governance projects, and encourage you to join us in doing so.

UPDATES

Executive Committee

In November of 2021, the organization's Executive Committee welcomed twelve new board members from across the globe, including Argentina, Canada, Greece, India, Italy, Japan, Kenya, the United Kingdom and the USA. The new Executive Committee reflects a balance of gender, youth, cultural and technical expertise; a factor which has been helpful in allowing the organization to move towards a more globally inclusive perspective.

Additionally, an Advisory Council, composed of representatives from the organization's membership, was established in the same year. The Advisory Council is invited to observe Executive Committee meetings, thereby enhancing transparency and communication between the Executive Committee and WFM-IGP's membership.

Secretariat

In March 2022, WFM-IGP welcomed a new consulting Executive Director, Amy Oloo, from Nairobi Kenya. Other consultants contracted in 2022 included: Luiz Bispo, Communications and Outreach (Australia); Tom Smit, IT Consultant, Think4IT, (Netherlands); Jeff Cook, Accounting, Chazin and Company (USA); and John Veerkamp, Website Consultant, MediaBlendNL (Netherlands).

Additionally, in May 2022, WFM-IGP entered an agreement with Lancaster University to exchange information on various policy issues, and to engage more youth in our work. As part of this agreement, Lancaster University assigned six students to support the current secretariat in various internship roles between November 2022 - June 2023.

Finally, in November 2022, WFM-IGP renewed its office hosting agreements with Citizens for Global Solutions in Washington DC, USA and WF Beweging Nederland in the Hague, Netherlands; however, since the COVID-19 pandemic, all consultants have continued to work remotely from around the globe.

Programs & Networks

In 2022, WFM-IGP served on the Steering Committee for the Coalition for the International Criminal Court (CICC), the International Coalition for the Responsibility to Protect (ICR2P), and the Global Pact for the Prevention of Armed Conflict (GPPAC), where it ensured that key global governance issues related to peace, atrocity prevention, as well as justice and accountability, were brought to the forefront of these network's agendas.

We also developed new programs to address emerging issues related to gender equality, peace and security, and environmental governance, all while maintaining its role in the campaign for a United Nations Parliamentary Assembly and the campaign for a Latin American and Caribbean Court Against Transnational Organized Crime (COPLA). Fundraising is currently ongoing for these projects.

Some of these newly developed projects are highlighted below:

MOBILIZING AN EARTH GOVERNANCE ALLIANCE (MEGA)

This project seeks to address the root cause of global environmental challenges by creating effective and accountable global environmental governance, via concrete and credible reforms, driven by a diverse and resilient high-impact coalition made up of civil society actors, states, and experts. The Climate Governance Commission is a partner for this particular project.

02

COALITION 3+3

Coalition 3+3 seeks to use a top-down approach in establishing a Northeast Asia Nuclear-weapon-free zone (NEA-NWFZ), with a Three-plus-Three Arrangement.

03

BEIJING + 30

This particular project seeks to promote the Role of Women in Decision Making in Nigeria, Botswana and Ghana; by following up on the three countries' commitments to the Beijing Declaration, and Platform for Action as it approaches its 30th year. More specifically, the project seeks to increase the political participation of women in local and national governments, whereby the three countries are amongst the lowest performing in this area. FEMNET and GENCED Ghana are project partners for this initiative.

Finally, the organization recently founded three Transnational Working Groups on: Artificial Intelligence, African Union - European Union relations, and a World Security Community. The transnational working groups are composed of the organization's members, who invite guest speakers from academia, as well as the international Affairs industry, and other relevant disciplines. The groups meet several times throughout the year, with a view to promoting discourse and policy formation around their thematic issues.

HIGHLIGHTS

Theory of change

In 2022 the newly elected Executive Committee of WFM-IGP initiated a membership-led Theory of Change process, to define a clear mandate from membership to management. The outcome, completely aligned with the 1947 Montreux Declaration (the foundational document of the World Federalist Movement), is as follows:

Vision

A just, free, and peaceful world, where humanity and nature flourish in harmony.

Mission

To create more effective, transparent, and accountable global governance leading to democratic world federation.

Values

In coming together to pursue our common vision and mission we value;

- 1 Integrity
We act with honesty and integrity in everything we do. We communicate openly and respectfully, both internally and externally.
- 2 Inclusion
We welcome all who share our vision, mission, and values, and celebrate the diversity of our global movement.
- 3 Working together
We are stronger and more effective working together, creatively combining our diverse skills, expertise, and perspectives.
- 4 Focus
We are united in unwavering focus on delivering our mission.

Montreux celebration event

On 8th December 2022, the WFM-IGP co-hosted an event to commemorate the 75th anniversary of the Montreux Declaration, alongside the Union of European Federalists (UEF). The hybrid event took place at the European Parliament in Brussels, Belgium, and online via zoom.

The event provided an opportune moment to reflect on the Montreux declaration, and the importance of World Federalism, in light of the Ukraine conflict and the climate crisis. The outcome of the meeting was the drafting of a joint declaration between WFM-IGP and UEF, whereby the two organizations agreed to work closely together, towards World Federalism.

Individual giving program

In 2022, WFM-IGP also re-initiated its individual giving program. Our internal network, in addition to existing individual donors, were invited to participate in our end of year individual giving campaign, which ran between October and December.

We were pleased to see the renewal of support, which went towards the initiation of the MEGA project at COP27, and towards partial cost of our operations for the year.

We would like to thank everyone that joined or shared our fundraiser, and we look forward to engaging all of our stakeholders in our upcoming activities over the 2023 period.
